

Announcements:

City Council passed NC Zoning today.

Library Lots:

- Library Lots park to close on Dec 4th. Ribbon Cutting at 11:00 on Dec 13th for the new park.
- Buy-a-brick should be up and running by this weekend. Library lots book marks created to be passed out at home tour.

Tour of Homes:

Planning going well. Vine Restaurant closed, volunteer dinner will be held at one of the homes. A local artist is developing a piece of art for silent auction – see it at the first house.

Variance:

There was a variance to build a new home on a lot at Amsterdam, and turning the existing home into an auxiliary building, but they have deferred their variance request. There was discussion about posting additional information about upcoming variances.

Safety:

- Sgt. Baily came to speak about crime in zone 6 – he is new to the zone. 12 foot beat officers have been assigned to the zone, possibly more to come.
- As a thank you to the police and firestations 19 and 29, Whole Foods and Alons, Avalon Catering and the 5th group provided food.
- The Beltline is clean now, thanks to the volunteers who showed up and did a massive clean up.
- John Wolfinger had a fantastic response from 911 this past week, and wants to pass along his thanks to Firestation 19 and Grady EMS.
- 4th Ward Park – Martha Quarter Hall – urged everyone to join the 4th Ward Park Conservancy. The park will be 35 acres, the 4th largest park in the city. Contact information: 404-659-0919, H4WP@newaboa.com

Ann Fauver – City Council:

City Council voted to assess $1.50 per monthly bill on VOIP. False alarm fee $ have not been collected in a number of years – they are attempting to collect going forward. City will attempt to assess collection fees from the parties responsible.
